

538 E. 7th Ave.
Denver Colorado

MR.

Peter

Original message
Elbow

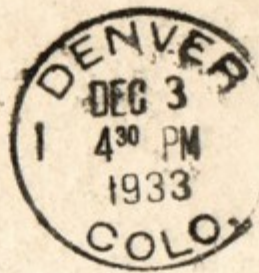

Miss Dorothy Smith

2368

Hyland Drive

Salt Lake City

Utah

A yellow moon, shining clear,
Moonlight splashed on virgin snow.
Shadows cloistered hanging near Rushing Tumbling by my window.

Whistle screaming, coach a-swaying,
Engine throbbing, charging forward;
Stell on rail, clanging, ringing;
Singing me to sleep — a-dreaming.

Bubbling voices of companions
Helped keep me from my slumber,
Helped make the din ^{more} complex
On my trip from home to Denver.

written while on the train coming out to my mission field.

Dec 1933 ?

Elder Clark.

written on train while travelling to Denver
Calverds Elk.