

Amendment Ordinance No VI

Relating to the amendment of Ordinance No 6 (p. 21) of the Village of Georgetown, Idaho.

Be it ordained by the Chairman and Village Board that Ordinance No 6 be amended to read as follows to wit:

Sec I That it shall be unlawful for any cattle, horses, mules, sheep, goats, hogs or fowls to be running at large at any time during the day or night without a driver herder or attendant or without proper means of controlling such live stock or fowls so as to trespass

Live stock or fowls found in violation of this amended Ordinance, shall be impounded by the Village Marshall and released only upon payment by the owner all damages done by such live stock or fowls together with costs of impounding which shall be