

Spring at the April Caravan when I think of the Deans in Framington & remember poor Amasas having intelligent wife - & his great loss I am overwhelmed with sorrow especially when I remember the little ones she had to leave behind but we must not repine for - Some great purpose God must have had in view came to all

W A Clark