Elder Daniel Robison spoke of the resurrection, of the deaths in his own family and of the remark a man made as he viewed his wife for the last time "You are no more mine". What a difference We have a hope that many know nothing about. He said Bro Robison, do you think the people will be willing to fast and pray for me while I undergoes the surgical operation

Prest Fox spoke of his cause of bereavement as to death of his mother in his own family. Spoke of the high esteem held for Sister Richards. It touches a tender chord Referred to his acquaintance (Jno R. Penman) taking his own life (hanging) We want to live right so we will not be ashamed to go to take up again the body

Prayed the Lord to bless these boys and others of the family

Prest. Samuel Francis said he was glad so much good can be said of Sister Richards. Referred to the sisters of Lazarus remarking to Jesus. Spoke of the testimonies of the resurrection especially of the evidences through Joseph the Prophet and Oliver Cowdery

Let us cling to the promise that the prayer of faith shall heal (save) the sick

Exhorted the sons to be good and this will be a comfort to their father.

Elder Prest Wm H. Rich. spoke of the difference between death in the Lord and the world. Spoke on the hope of the Latter Day Saints.

B. F. Anderson said he would say a few more words, which were that he knew of nothing to hinder him from receiving the highest re-