

Genealogy of Temple Wood Pottery of Dorothy Clark

I was ^{never} aware of my parents' inter-relationships with the C.H. ward, when I met my ^{future} husband, Ellis A. ~~the~~ with the group of Elder

In the C.H. ward, where I met my ^{future} husband, Ellis Al - he with a group of Elders with other El who hadn't yet had chance for missions were encouraged to start regular temple attendance.

At yr ass later when he left for a sh ten miss. I decided to do a rec to help me pass the time usefully during his absence. My young cousin Winifred was already a teaching job as we could be named.

teaching job so we could be married.
 It was an ^{early} fall gathering of Bushman kin in our home that ^{sparked} started a new idea that ^{that} existed in it. ~~It was~~ because a close cousin, Vera Murphy, had been reporting a her mission & staying in notes had told me much more.

My enthusiasm for river labor couldn't be wasted but since I had steady empl & was helping my family I asked Ed if he would be willing to serve
Of course I had always planned to marry the girl I had met in His parents were pleased tho at the time unable to help for having lost their mercantile business in G. I. because of the depression nationally

When we returned to SL following 11 yrs of residence in Fla where I was for 1st time. There were opp. to help Aunt Adèle Weston in her several efforts. Father & I reached many S. & W. etc.

 It occurred to me there was good reason for many members looked interest in this imp field church assignment it wasn't talked about enough or kept their mind. I should notice on Regent TW More Publicity might help. The dozens of slogans flooded my mind, these were

~~The~~ ^{NP} ~~was researched & prepared with my~~ ^{actual writing + music by Roxana + Home}

We were given permission to present this during reg in Cult Hall with poor service by each ward also a good attendance was assured.
 W. Bennett Jr Sec of Gen Soc & former Can vintler & friend of my parents encouraged & advised us in these efforts. I had attended his classes in Research with my mother & off when we first came to SLC.

Another friend whose talents contributed to our efforts was ^{Miss} M. Anderson of Shelby Coburn I had met in Shelby during visits w my sister Jane Harker Her beautiful sketches & letters
