

though by borrowing $12.50 which I have not been able to return yet. Living is cheap here and still it runs up by the end of the month but I will do the best I can and trust that all will be well. Praying for the continuation of the blessings of God on all at home. I remaining Your affectionate Son, John.