SOME INTERESTING ACHIEVEMENTS:

Judy Thayne FULLER (M5-2-3-3) is President of her RS. Her husband, Dr Edward N. Fuller is a research chemist for Phillips Petro. and recently gave a paper -- on gas chromatography- in New Jersey for which he received high praise.

Clark E. THAYNE (M5-2-3-1) last fall was given the position of Principal of Orlando High School in Orlando, Calif.

Two of Nancy Rich KNIGHT's (M5-1-4-2) sons, though young, have received fine awards. Steven Clark KNIGHT received a scholarship for the Outstanding Athlete upon graduating from Olympus High School in 1979. David Eric KNIGHT received an Honors Scholarship from Olympus High School to the University of Utah.

Nadine Clark AVERY (M5-7-1) received her Masters in Education from Cal State U. at Fullerton. Her husband, Neal, has just been appointed Supt. of Schools, Whittier, Calif.

Clark and Floyd YOUNG (M5-8-5 & 6) sold their station in 1978 after being in the gas and oil business for 25 yrs. Clark is now selling insurance and real estate and is the owner of a beautiful new reception center, The White House, which is located in south Jordan on Redwood Road near the new Jordan Temple. Floyd is also selling real estate and became a broker last December. He received recognition in February when he was admitted to the Realtors Million Dollar Club.

Iris Clark Young (M5-8) is doing extration work with her own microfilm reader (Thanks to the generosity of First Security Bank). She manages to go to the library occasionally with her daughter, Thelma GLOVER (M5-8-3) who is also doing extraction work. Before receiving this call, Iris was a temple worker in the Salt Lake Temple for 25 years.

Iris' twin brother, Irvin (5-9) lives in Palm Springs, California. They are the only surviving children of Joseph Smith CLARK.

OF NOTE TO ALL OF US! The old Clark home in Farmington, Utah is being rebuilt by its present owners. They are attempting to restore it to its original state as much as possible.
