Dear John:

I am the family representative for Edward Barrett Clark. (The current Descendants of Ezra Thompson Clark book says that I'm "Stanley Barrett," but in reality, I've always been Stanford John Clark. My sister Carol Clark mentioned to me that she sent you the updated information from my family.) I truly appreciate all the work you have done for the family reunion and I'm sorry that we weren't able to connect at all during the year.

I wanted to give you an update regarding my responsibilities for the reunion. Unfortunately, I'll be out of town and won't be able to attend. My sister, Alice Clark Cannon, will be giving the three minute talk about one of Edward Barret's family members. She will be speaking about my uncle Stan (Stanford E.) Clark, oldest living son of Edward Franklin and Inez Potter Clark. Hopefully, he will be in attendance.

Regarding the presentation table, family members of Edward Barrett's line have been notified accordingly. They will be responsible for bringing any items, setting them up, and taking them home.

Again, thanks for all of your work. I hope this year's reunion is a smashing success.

Best wishes,

Stan Clark
